humans have long searched for an adequate answer to an age old question if god is good why do we suffer an entire book of the bible job is dedicated to the problem of god and human suffering theologians across continents and centuries have debated the intricacies inconsistencies and assumptions the question elicits and of course many have turned to jesus s own suffering and his horrible death at the cross in search of understanding all too often the resulting approaches to the mystery of suffering though linked to the jewish and christian scriptures and traditions fail to satisfy contemporary hearts and minds the mystery of god and suffering draws guidance from the gospel of john and the letters to the colossians and the ephesians and focuses on god s overflowing love in creation as a foundation for understanding jesus s death and its implications for those who follow him this work offers an alternative vision one emphasizing incarnation over atonement for all those who find themselves uneasy or even oppressed by the notion of a vindictive god who demands the suffering and death of his son the mystery of god and suffering also speaks to a larger audience comprised of all those who suffer and search for meaning in their suffering with a focus on the eternal concepts of life and love that are not simply integral to but inseparable from a god who is good as well as on insights of believers through the ages the mystery of god and suffering offers wise guidance for our journey into the abyss of suffering the price of a sparrow is the third of three books of reflections on the holy scripture each a stand alone book whose short chapters can be read randomly there is no order just let the holy spirit guide you to the chapter that you may need to read at that moment multiple references from the book of genesis through fourteen chapters of the old testament are followed by references to the gospels of the new testament and sixteen chapters concluding with the book of revelation as in thank the holy spirit and blessed are you who believe the reader is invited to enter on an exciting journey into the holy scripture as the reader place your own lives into the reflections and make each experience your own please be sure to read the referenced passages in the holy scripture because the word of god inspired those texts the author would be honored if you would then read the plain language reflections that he has put into the book understand inspiration for these reflections came from the holy spirit through me your writer and are now given to you the reader each of us is worth more than the price of a sparrow yet not one of them falls to the ground without god s knowledge how much more does god love each one of us
